

Associate in Applied Science in Nursing

- Two-year program leading to an Associate in Applied Science Degree in Nursing in preparation to sit for the NCLEX examination.

Starts in August 2026.

30 Student
Seats Available.

- Complete the program over 2 years with graduation in the Spring of the second year. The coursework is in-person with clinicals combining virtual, simulation, and in-person.

Admission Requirements:

- Applicants with two unsuccessful attempts in prior Registered Nursing programs will not be considered.
- Minimum 2.0 college GPA (if applicable)
- TEAS score of at least 60 (valid for 3 years; remote option available)

Completion of the following prerequisites:

- English 101

Recommended but not required:

- General Psychology
- General Ed Elective
- Human Anatomy & Physiology I & II
- Human Anatomy & Physiology Lab I & II

Important Dates & Deadlines:

- RN Program Application Open Date: November 1, 2025
- RN Program Application Deadline: June 1, 2026
- TEAS Deadline: May 1, 2026

Find the RN Application and more information at:

<https://easternwv.edu/academics/nursing-program>

To-Do List for Applicants:

- Submit RN Program Application.
- The RN program admits up to 30 students annually through a competitive, selective admission process based on objective, weighted criteria to ensure fairness for all applicants. See the Standards and Requirements on website.
- Complete your college application at <https://easternwv.edu/apply-now/>
- Complete the 2025–2026 FAFSA
- Schedule/complete the ATI TEAS Exam (Remote option available).
- Request transcripts and/or certifications: High school, college, and Allied Health Certifications.

